

Mathematics and Numeracy

- Reciting and sequencing numbers
- Counting
- Reading and writing numbers
- Shape
- Pattern
- Measure

Expressive Arts

- Welsh artist - Rhiannon
- Welsh rhymes
- Welsh singing festival (Gymanfa Ganu)
- Listening to music by composer Robert Arwyn, thinking about Dynamics and Tempo
- Welsh Folk Dancing
- Let's Move - Radio programme - Winter

Work for the school Eisteddfod

Health and Well-being

PE - To have the confidence and motivation to move in different ways.

- Balance
- Ball skills
- Early gymnastics

Happy Mind -Celebrate

- Identify own feelings and others
- Discuss likes and dislikes
- Personal Safety

Early Education Wrexham . October 2006

Spring Term 2024 Nursery Our topic is Wonderful Wales

All our activities are carried out in our indoor and outdoor classroom.

This is overview is a guide of what we may cover. In Nursery we often 'plan in the moment' and we follow the child's interests and lead.

Science and Technology

Using iPads to take photos and print their work

Access CBeebies/ Crickweb and Topmarks websites to consolidate skills in other areas.

Using Green Screen

Den building

Creating a model railway to reach the top of Snowdon

Making castles from a variety of materials.

Language, Literacy and Communication

- Telling News -speaking clearly
- Listening to others tell their news
- Listening to stories / Re telling stories
- Fact & information story books
- Visual posters
- Writing letters
- Recognising own name
- Correctly form letters of own name (independently ,overwriting using a variety of mark making tools and materials)
- Free writing/mark making in all areas

Books

- Dragon's Post
- My Dragon series
- Little Welsh Rugby Fan
- Dilwyn the Welsh Dragon
- Zog

Welsh

- Diolch/Ga i
- Colours
- Pwy wyt ti?
- Sut wyt ti
- Flic a Flac

Humanities

- Castles in Wales
- 7 Wonders of Wales
- Annual events in Wales and why we celebrate - Santes Dwynwen & St David's Day

Religious Education

Christian Value - Trust

- Festivals & Celebrations - Chinese New Year
- Mother's Day
- Easter